From: Rick Theoharis/ owner

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter to explain to you that I am not at fault for sending my Uniform Business Report late. To make a long story short, my restaurant is located in a brand new shopping center. There are only 8 to 10 shops open in the development which lays on roughly 80 acres of property. The developer decided to put the mail center about 1/4 mile away from my Building. In this oversized mailbox is about 30 individual units. My UBR Was inside one of those units which was not mine. It turns out that the new ice cream shop found some of my mail, which has been sitting in there for months. I have been going through lots of problems with some of my distributors for failure of receiving invoices, bills and the list goes on.

Please try to understand that I am not at fault in this situation. I am going on my second year of business and it is very trying in the restaurant business. I would hope that you will understand.

Sincerely
