DIRECTORS' INDEMNIFICATION

1. The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith or in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, of he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. However, with respect to any action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgement in its favor, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, on application, that despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity in view of all the circumstances of the case. Any indemnification hereunder shall be made only on a determination by a majority of shareholders that indemnification is proper in the particular circumstances because the party to be indemnified has met the applicable standard of conduct. Determination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalents shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the party did not meet the applicable standard of conduct. Indemnification hereunder may be paid by the corporation on advance of the final disposition of any action, suit or proceeding on preliminary determination that the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount, unless it is ultimately determined that he/she is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section.

2. The corporation shall also indemnify any director, officer, employee or agent who has been successful in defense of any action, suit or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, against all expenses, including attorneys' fees, reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of any independent determination that such director, officer, employee or agent met any appropriate standard of conduct.

3. The indemnification provided for herein shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

4. In addition to the indemnification provided for herein, the corporation shall have power to make any other or further indemnification except an indemnification against gross negligence or willful misconduct, under any resolution or agreement duly authorized by a majority of disinterested directors or duly authorized by a majority of the shareholders.

5. If any expenses or other amounts are paid by way of indemnification, otherwise than by court order or action by the shareholders, the corporation shall, not later than the time of delivery to the shareholders of written notice of the next annual meeting, unless such meeting is held within three (3) months from the date of such payment and, in any event, within fifteen (15) months from the date of such payment, deliver by mail to each shareholder of record at the time entitled to vote for the election of directors a statement specifying the persons paid, the amounts paid and the nature and status at the time of such payment of the litigation or threatened litigation.
