Attention: Michele Milligan, Supervisor

Dear Ms. Milligan,

Per our conversation on May 4, 2006, please find enclosed the following information concerning the reinstatement of MarLuc's Enterprises, Inc. As stated the Uniform Business Report for 2003 was sent late due to my being deployed overseas. See copy of later sent dated September 29, 2003 along with report explaining the lateness.

I did not received the later dated October 7, 2003 until much later in that year, due to the fact that my mail was being sent to me in Kuwait. It took sometimes 3-4 weeks for mail to actually get in my hands. I knew that I could not personally take care of the returned check issue (letter dated November 5, 2003, which I did not receive until after the revocation and dissolution was issued), so I decided to just wait until my return to the states. I am scheduled for release in July 2006, and wanted to get my corporation reinstated.

According to the provisions of the United States Soldier and Sailor's Act, I am asking for consideration in the waiving of the reinstatement fees.

I thank you for taking the time to speak with me, and will appreciate any consideration in this matter.

Thank you,

Marshall L. Bush
Colonel, US Army
Fort Benning, GA

Enclosures: copies of letters (2), check for $600
And deployment orders

RE: MarLuc's Enterprises, Inc

Please be advise that the I, Marshall L. Bush, the Current Registered Agent, am currently on active duty, a Colonel in the United States Army serving now at Fort Benning, Columbus, Georgia, and was unable to file the report in a timely manner. (not being able to obtain the mail properly)

I am asking that you accept the $150 filing fee at this time and allow us time to pay the late fee. I am asking for monthly payment until such time as the penalties are paid. If there is some program for one-time waiver or forgiveness, please allow me to take part.

I am a small business that did not have earnings due to my being called to active duty.

I am asking your indulgence.

Colonel, US Military
