To Whom It May Concern:

Per my conversation with a representative of your office earlier today, enclosed please find the completed 2001 Uniform Business Reports, together with the $150 filing fee attached to each report, for the above listed entities.

As I explained to your representative, we went through a transitional period of several different bookkeepers, which evidently resulted in the original documents being misplaced. My only knowledge of these documents not being filed was upon receipt of the enclosed second notices. After checking our records, I've determined that the original reports were, in fact, not filed.

Based on the above explanation, we are hereby requesting that the late filing penalty be waived.

Cohen, Taubman & Company (FEI #65-0274831) is also requesting a Certificate of Status and has enclosed the additional $8.75 fee. You will notice that this particular entity has been in existence for many years and has always filed this report in a timely fashion.

Thank you in advance for your understanding in the resolution of this matter.

Sincerely,

Sandy Betton
