Re: Affordable Framing and Art

Ms. Harris,

Please forgive us for submitting our 2002 Uniform Business Report late. Besides a not so pretty year financially my wife had been on bed rest in St. Petersburg at the All Children's Hospital for a very high risk pregnancy the whole month of May. Commuting back and forth from Naples for over a month, taking care of our 5 year old, plus trying to work my job and then trying to keep up with my wife's business was very stressful and unfortunately this report slipped through the cracks. Thankfully our second son was born May 29th at 7:27pm and all of the tests turned out negative and we were allowed to bring him home May 31st.

I am enclosing the $150 fee with the signed report and would be extremely thankful if you would not charge me the late fee.

Respectfully,

R. Douglas Brown, Jr.
