ARTICLE 10. INDEMNIFICATION. The Corporation shall indemnify each Officer and Director, including former Officers and Directors, to the full extent permitted by law.

A. No director of this Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, however, that the foregoing clauses shall not apply to any liability of a director:

1. for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders;

2. for any act or omission not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;

3. under Section 607 of the Corporation Law of the State of Florida; or

4. for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

B. This Article does not limit or eliminate the liability of a director for any act or omission that occurred before the time this Article became effective. Any repeal, termination, modification, or cancellation of this Article shall not terminate or adversely affect any right or protection of a director occurring before the date of repeal, termination, modification, or cancellation.

ARTICLE 11. STOCK TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS. Shares of capital stock of the Corporation shall be issued to the initial subscribers upon payment of the consideration determined by the Board of Directors. Shares held by each Shareholder may not be sold or otherwise transferred to other persons unless first offered to this Corporation or to the remaining Shareholders in proportion to their shares. The price, terms and other provisions regarding this restriction may be specified by written agreement among the Shareholders, which agreement may expand this Article and which may also include the Corporation as a party.

ARTICLE 12. BYLAWS. The power to adopt, alter, amend and repeal the Bylaws shall be vested in the Board of Directors, but all alterations, amendments and repeals of the Bylaws must be approved by a majority of the Shareholders.

ARTICLE 13. COMMENCEMENT OF CORPORATE EXISTENCE. In accordance with Section 607.167, Florida Statutes, the date when corporate existence shall commence is the date of subscription and acknowledgment of these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 14. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES. The power to amend these Articles of Incorporation shall vest in the Stockholders and Directors, in the manner produced by the Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE 15. PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS. Each shareholder of this corporation shall have the first right to purchase shares (and securities convertible into shares) of any class, kind or series of stock in this corporation that may from time to time be issued (whether or not presently authorized), including shares from the treasury of this corporation, in the ratio that the number of shares he holds at the time of issue bears to the total number of shares outstanding, exclusive of treasury shares. This right shall be deemed waived by any shareholder who does not exercise it and pay for the shares pre-empted within thirty (30) days of receipt of a notice in writing from the corporation, stating the prices, terms and conditions of the issue of shares, and inviting him to exercise his pre-emptive rights. the right may also be waived by affirmative written waiver submitted by the shareholder to the corporation within thirty (30) days of receipt from the corporation.

ARTICLE 16. Director Conflict of Interest.

A. No contract or other transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors, or between a corporation and any other corporation, firm, association or other entity, in which one or more of its directors are directors or officers, or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable for this reason alone or by reason alone that such director or directors are present at the meeting of the board of directors or of a committee thereof which approves such contract or transaction, or that his or their votes are counted for such purpose:

1. If the fact of such common directorship, officership or financial interest is disclosed or known to the board or committee, and the board or committee approves such contract or transaction by vote sufficient for such purpose without counting the vote or votes of such interested director or directors; or

2. If such common directorship, officership or financial interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote thereon, and such contract or transaction is approved by vote of the shareholders; or

3. If the contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is approved by the board, a committee or the shareholders.

B. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or of a committee which approves such contract or transaction.

ARTICLE 17. INFORMAL ACTION OF DIRECTORS. If all the Directors severally or collectively consent in writing to any action taken or to be taken by the corporation, and the writings evidencing their consent are filed with the Secretary of the corporation, the action shall be valid as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 18. INFORMAL ACTION OF SHAREHOLDERS. Any action of the shareholder may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing setting forth the actions so taken shall be signed by Fifty-one Percent (51%) of the holders of outstanding stock and be filed with the Secretary of the corporation as part of the corporate records.
