Dear Mr. Toner

Please excuse my error of not filing my first annual report at the appropriate time. This is solely an error on my regard. This is my first year in a corporation and I should have looked into these matters during the initial start. The second notice of filing for the annual report was the first I received, however this will not happen again in the years to come. I appreciate your consideration into this matter. I enclosed a cheque for $150 and if you have any further questions pertaining this matter feel free to call me.

Sincerely,
Greg Vashegyi
