To Whom It May Concern:

I recently contacted your office regarding the attached Uniform Business Report Form. I checked with our office in Bradenton on May 2, 2003 to see if they had sent in these forms prior to the May 1, deadline. They said that they had not sent the form in because they had not received it. The form was suppose to be mailed to the company's Winter Haven address. I have looked through our files in Winter Haven, have been unable to find the form, and do not remember ever receiving it. Your office said that if I were to write a cover letter identifying that we had not received the form, there is a good chance that the late fee would be waved. Per your office's instructions, I have enclosed a copy of the completed form along with a check for $150.00. We appreciate your understanding with regard to this matter.

We have added Frederick J. Murrell, Esq., as the registered agent for the company. My understanding is that, since our registered agent is located in our Bradenton office, the Unified Business Report form will now be mailed directly to our Bradenton office.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Sands
Director, ComCode Corporation
