Dear Ms. Hood

In April I went online to file and apparently it did not work. When I received the second notice from your office is the first time I realized it had not gone through. You can check my past records and notice I have always filed timely.

When this was set up I also filed a fictitious name so it was F & S Group, Inc. T/A Fisher Realty. Through some error Fisher Realty was assigned a FEI number that has taken about three years to correct. I talked to a representative online and was told that fictitious names have to be refilled after five year. I will do that again.

I appreciate your attention and any consideration on the penalty.

Sincerely,

Patricia M Fisher

Dear Sir or Madam:

Per instructions, for the second time, I am submitting the 2003 Uniform business Report to be filed along with my first letter of explanation. I was told they were separated and that is why my report was returned. Please file my report and forego the penalty. It was explained to me since I had tried to file back in April online and it did not go through the report would be accepted and the penalty excused.

Thank you for your help and consideration.

Sincerely,

Patricia M Fisher
