DEAR LADIES & GENTLEMEN:

The reason why I'm writing to you this letter is to let you know that I couldn't come up with all the requirements from the Airlines Reporting Corporation. And this is making me to change my mind about the corporation status.

And I need to inform you that I didn't do any business at all. I didn't have any profits or sales. That I filed for a corporation on date: 05-27-98 but I couldn't get the permit from the Airlines Reporting Corporation to do the sales of the airlines tickets.

So if you don't mind I'm going to ask to you to go ahead and get the dissolution for my corporation.

Sincerely:

ENCLOSURE:-Articles of Dissolution.
