RE: Letter Number 201A00018315

As per our conversation on the 27th of March 2001, I have filled out the form requesting reinstatement of my J.P. Sasser, inc. "S" corporation you have sent to me, and have enclosed a check to the Department for $450.00 for the license taxes for the years mentioned. Furthermore, I am requesting for forgiveness of the penalties involved.

My corporation is located at the address stated in the incorporation documents as 675 Maude Road, Wauchula, FL 33873. However, the mailing address was stated as 531 E. Shore Trail, Sparta NJ 07871. As you so graciously discovered, the letters sent from your office had always been sent to the Maude Road, FL address where there is no mailbox or mailing facilities. However, the letter that stated that my company had been dissolved came to the correct address ?? I have faithfully filed and paid all my state and federal taxes each year. This being my first ever corporation of any kind, I have failed to even know that these taxes were to be paid. I am sure that in some information somewhere there may be reference to performing such duties and even now I am asking help to discover what duties should be done so as not to have this type of thing happen again.

To complicate matters more, as of the 12th of April 2001 my wife and I are selling this home at 531 E. Shore Trl., Sparta NJ 07871 and moving to 22 High Point Circle, Franklin, NJ 07416 THEN..... as of 01 August 2001 we are moving to 507 North Beach, Sunrise Beach, TX 78643 as my employer, Delta Air Lines is moving me to Dallas, TX. As of that date, I plan to leave the new address in Texas as my "S" corporation address by the end of 2001. So any help in changing my address to the Franklin, NJ address until the move is completed will be appreciated. I am sending this letter to Mr. Gerald Stead the Current Registered Agent, and he will sign it and forward it to you.

Sincerely,

James P. Sasser
