To Whom It May Concern:

I telephoned your office on November 14, 2000 and spoke with a Ms. Sprather. I found out that my company Retail Site Development was administratively dissolved. I then had my other two companies (TLN Investment Holdings, Inc. and The Stepping Stones International Foundation, Inc.) checked and found that they both were also dissolved. After further conversation, it was concluded that since all three companies were mailed together on April 30, 2000, they must all have been misplaced by either the post office or unfortunately somewhere in your mailroom. Since this was the case I was sent the reinstatement forms and was told to send you a letter explaining what happened and a replacement check for $150.00 per company.

Enclosed please find the reinstatement form for Retail Site Development, Inc. with a replacement check for $150.00. Please reinstate this company as quickly as possible.

Thank you for your help during our telephone conversation and the reinstatement of this company. The other two companies will follow when I get their reinstatement forms with a copy of this same letter.

Very truly yours,

Joyce Markley
