Mrs. Harris, Florida Secretary of State
P. O. Box 1500
Tallahassee, FL 32302-1500

Dear Mrs. Harris,

Please consider this request for abatement of penalties associated with the very late payment and submission of the Uniform Business Report for Atlantic International Exposition, Inc.

Mr. Vincent Weaver, an industrious 35-year-old father of three from 14 to 4, formed this corporation years old.

He handled all the family business matters from mid 1999 through March 2001, when he suddenly, without warning, died at home one evening.

He had issued the corporate stock in joint names with his wife, Julia Weaver. In 1999 she was diagnosed with cancer which is why he had to start handling the paperwork.

When he died, she started to try to run the day to day operations of the business and pick up the paperwork management again. She did not know what he had filed and paid and had to wait for notices of delinquency to find out.

The business required them to be out of state for 5 months each spring and summer. It is a road business associated with county fairs.

While on the road she had another return of the active results of the cancer. She is currently in bed with Hospice attending to her.

Her mother and mother-in-law and I are trying to resolve all financial and legal matters now. This is one of those matters, we must keep the corporation active so the estate will be able to either operate the business for the children or sell it.

Thank you for your understanding and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Samuel B. Eckhardt
