Dear Sir or Madam:

I realize this is an excuse, however, I believe it is a valid one. I never received the first notice for the corporate fee (documentation enclosed). My business is very new and we had quite a few problems with mail being delivered to the place of business. We are in an area which is in the process of being revitalized but is still kind of "iffy" as far as crime is concerned. We had some mail actually stolen, things that I was aware of like catalogs that I had sent for and books that I had ordered. So we decided to use a Post Office Box instead. Apparently, the corporate fee booklet didn't find its way to our box. Please forgive this transgression and allow me to pay the initial fee of 150.00. Our fledgling business needs every penny right now.

Thank you for your attention.

Johanna Krohn, Business Owner
