ARTICLE 13 - CUMULATIVE VOTING

The shareholders of this corporation shall be allowed to vote their shares cumulatively so as to give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of his shares, and to distribute them among as many candidates as he may wish. Notice must be given by any shareholder to the President or another principal officer of said corporation not less than twenty-four hours prior to the time set for the holding of a shareholders meeting for the election of directors that said shareholder intends to cumulate his vote at said election.

ARTICLE 14 - STOCK TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

- A. A shareholder may not transfer, sell assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of his shares of stock on this corporation until such shares have first been offered to the corporation by written notice.

The offer to sell the stock shall be made to the corporation at a negotiable price and said offer shall remain open to the corporation for a period of thirty days after receipt of the offer by the corporation. In the event the corporation does not accept the offer a similar offering in writing shall be made to the remaining shareholders at the same price for the pro rate proportion of their shares to the total number of outstanding shares less the shares of the offering shareholder. In the event the offer shall not be accepted within thirty days after receipt of the offer by the shareholder, the share may be transferred to the interested outside purchaser at that price.

- B. In the event of the death of any shareholder, the corporation shall have first option to purchase the stock of the corporation by so notifying the personal representative of the estate of the deceased shareholder within thirty days after notification by the personal representative of the death of the shareholder. The purchase price shall be the book value of the decedent stock, unless some other value is stipulated in a separate agreement executed by the stockholders and the corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have subscribed by name on
