DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS

To Whom It May Concern,

On July 3rd I received a second notice for filing my 1999 profit corporation annual report. Needless to say, I panicked when I saw the $400 late charged that was assessed for late filing. I am sure that I never received a first notice to file, or I would have been prompt in paying my fee and returning the completed form to you. Being newly incorporated, I am extremely conscientious about every piece of correspondence I receive related to my business and make sure that I respond to everything in a timely manner. I called the Division of Corporations this morning and spoke to a very helpful lady named Carolyn. She suggested that I write you a letter explaining that I had not received my first notice, and send in my $150 payment immediately. I would really appreciate if you would consider excusing the $400 late charge in this particular case for this reason. I had no idea that I was supposed to file an annual report, this is my first time and I was only made aware of this by receipt of this second notice.
Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

JANICE MAGARIAN
