RE: 2001 Renewal
Doc. # P9800054413
FEI # 59-3517505

It came to my attention recently that I never received my renewal papers from your department. This, of course, is my reminder to be sure they are returned on time. You will note from my past record that has always been the case.*

As I am sure you sent the renewal, I can only conclude that, because I have moved, the post office is again at fault. I have had many problems with them not forwarding my mail. What I have found in other situations, is that my mail has been returned to the sender marked either "No Forwarding Address", "Addressee Unknown" or "Forwarding Expired". None of these 'excuses' is the case and their inefficiency has caused me some serious problems - this being one of them. If you have a specific place in your office to look for these kinds of returns, I am sure you will find my renewal there. I have investigative case numbers with the post office due to their errors: #CO9056403 and, yours specifically, #KA5854324.

Please consider renewing my corporation at the normal filing fee of $150.00. My check and your 2001 Uniform Business Report are enclosed.

Thank you,

Sincerely,

Susan Koester
