Dear Reviewer,

I called in to the Division of Corporations to alert them to the fact that I did not receive the original 2001 Business Report for the Corporation of Rogers & Gotzold. They advised me to forward this letter of explanation along with the original fee of $150.00. I greatly appreciate your consideration in this matter and should I not receive the notification in the future, I will be alert to the matter and contact you directly.

Sincerely,

Curtis Rogers

Dear Supervisor,

I have just completed a follow on call to the office responsible for the Uniform Business Report. They recommended that I resubmit the letter above which was mailed with the original fee received by your office. Please take into consideration my non-receipt of the original notice.

Sincerely,

Curtis Rogers
