ARTICLE IV

Preemptive Rights

Every shareholder, upon the sale for cash of any new common stock, or of any treasury common stock, shall have the right to purchase his pro-rata share of said stock (as nearly as it may be done without the issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others. "Pro-rata" means, in this article, in the proportion the number of shares already owned by the shareholder bears to the total number of shares of the corporation already issued and outstanding by the corporation. In case any shareholder does not make use of his preemptive rights, such rights will accrue to the rest of the shareholders, also pro-rata.

ARTICLE V

Right of First Refusal

In the event a shareholder received a bona fide offer acceptable to him for the purchase of all or a portion of his shares (or any rights or interest therein), such shareholder (herein-after referred to as the Offering Shareholder) shall give written notice of such offer to all other shareholders by registered mail at the addresses listed in the corporation's books. The notice must be set forth the name of the proposed transferee, the number of shares to be transferred, the price per share and all other terms and conditions of the proposed transfer.

On receipt of the notice with respect to such offer, each of the remaining shareholders shall be entitled during a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of the reception of said notice to purchase that portion of the offered shares that the number of shares held by him bears, to the number of shares held by all shareholders electing to purchase (and actually purchasing) the offered shares on the same terms and conditions as set out in offer.

Each shareholder electing to purchase shall promptly give notice to the Secretary of the Company of the maximum number of offered shares that he is willing to purchase. If the other shareholders desire to purchase all of the shares that are subject to the offer, the Secretary shall give written notification of his effect to the offering shareholder, and said sale and purchase shall be closed within thirty (30) days thereafter. In the event that the other shareholders do not intend to purchase all of the offered shares, the offering shareholder shall have the right to transfer all of the offered shares which the other shareholders do not intend to acquire to the prospective purchasers free and clear of any restrictions against transfer that might otherwise have been created by this Article.

Similar rights of purchase or options to purchase will accrue to the rest of the shareholders in the case anyone of such shareholders becomes disabled, bankrupt, files for voluntary bankruptcy or someone files to have him declared, makes an assignment in favor of creditor, or dies. The purchase price per share of stock in this case will be determined by evaluation to be made about the middle of the fiscal year of the corporation by an outside, independent appraiser or certified public accountant, who will determine, as exactly as possible, the value of such share, using generally approved accounting methods. The same option shall exist in case the shares of any shareholders pass to a third party as a result.

Any attempted sale or transfer of stock in violation of the provisions of these articles is null and void. All certificates of share of this corporation shall carry a rubber stamp reading: "These shares are subject to the provisions of Article V of Articles of Incorporation in regard to limitations on transfer of stock".
