RE: 2002 Uniform Business Report

Dear Ms. Harris,

I am writing to you regarding an ongoing problem with the Uniform Business Report Document #P98000054739.

Last year we did not receive the report document on time and much later received the report requiring a higher fee for late filing. When we got the later document for filing we inspected it and saw it bore an incorrect address for this mailing. It had the incorrect address of 808 Royal Street.

I called in last year and spoke to one of your representatives and asked that the mailing address be corrected to 828 Royal Street #500 New Orleans, La 70116. I took the time to call to clear this up so that we could avoid this problem in the future. They informed me that the address correction would be made.

Well, this year, same old stuff! I called your office and spoke with "Steve" in the corporate division and he checked into the computer and said he saw that there was a request for an address correction last year and apparently it did not get done. Additionally, if you look at the report that we file, you'll see that the address for me as registered agent also has an address error when you look at the address for the officers and directors. The correct address is 7425 Wilson Road, not 7415.

I am enclosing the payment of $150.00 for filing of the report. Please respond IN WRITING to confirm that these address corrections have been made in your system.

I'd suggest that you instruct staff be a little more accurate in their input of data into the system.

Sincerely,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'B. Crosby', is written over the typed name and address.
