Dear Sir / Madam,

I am writing this letter to explain why there is a delay in the payment of $150 from my company to your department.

Unfortunately, some of my mails were misplaced by the mail carrier. As a result, this second notice was given by my neighbour recently. In fact, I did not receive the first letter at all.

After realizing the problem, I called your department explaining the problem I was having. I was told to write this letter explaining the situation and also to include the check for the $150.

I deeply regret the inconvenience this situation might have caused your department.

Yours Sincerely,
Rohan Williams.
