ARTICLE SIX

A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of duty of care or other duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any appropriation, in violation of his duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation, (ii) for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, (iii) of the types set forth in Section 14-2-832 of the Florida Business Corporation Code, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper benefit.

Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this Article by the shareholders of the corporation shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the corporation with respect to any act or omissions occurring prior to the effective date of such repeal or modification.

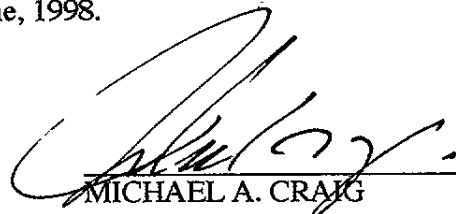

If the Florida Business Corporation Code is hereafter amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the amended Florida Business Corporation Code.

In the event any of the provisions of this article (including any provisions within a single sentence) is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or otherwise unenforceable, the remaining provisions are severable and shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE SEVEN

The corporation shall be organized and managed so that it is a "SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATION" as defined in IRC SEC. 1244(c)(1), as amended. Compliance with this section will enable shareholders to treat the loss of the sale or exchange of their shares as an "ordinary loss" on their personal income tax returns. Therefore, the proper officers of the corporation are directed to maintain such accounting records as are necessary so that any shareholder who experiences a loss on the transfer of common shares of the corporation may determine whether they qualify for "ordinary loss" deduction treatment on their personal income tax returns.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has executed these Articles of Incorporation this 12th day of June, 1998.

MICHAEL A. CRAIG

Having been named as registered agent and to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I hereby accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
