RE: Request for Waiver of Late Filing Fee

To Whom It May Concern:

Please review this letter in consideration of waiving the late filing fee for the 2002 Uniform Business Report for Royal Reflections, Inc. Until this year I have only filed reports for businesses in Alabama. This is my first year for filing reports in Florida, and I was unaware of the May 1 due date. The blank form was misplaced in the file behind other forms not due until June 30, 2002. Because I have never filed in Florida, I did not know there was any type of form due May 1, so I did not know to look for the form in the file. I did call the Florida Department of Revenue in March to ask what types of forms would be due throughout the year in Florida, and I think I was told the first form due would be the Intangible Personal Property Tax due on June 30. I do not have the name of the person I spoke with or any other documentation of that call. I apologize for my oversight and assure you the report will be timely filed next year!

Sincerely,

Julie H. Glover
