To Whom It May Concern:

On Saturday August 9th, I received the Uniform Business Report for 2003. Normally I receive this much earlier in the year. When I opened it I noticed that the filing fee was significantly higher than years past. Upon further examination of the notice, I found that the reason for the increase was because it was not properly filed this year.

I never received the first notice. I have my company mail sent to a pack and ship business, and have on numerous occasions received other renters mail. So I can only assume that someone else received my original report and did not bother to turn it into me. I would very much appreciate it if you would wave the penalty this year. My company is a single person business and I incorporated simply to protect my personal assets. I have always turned in my paperwork on a timely basis through my registered agent. I would also ask that in the future, this mailing go to my registered agent.

Sincerely,

Barbara Shempert
