Re: TRIPLE S PRODUCTIONS, INC. #65 - 0846911

Oct. 23, 2002

To whom it may concern:

Hopefully, this letter will serve as an explanation of events regarding the corporation listed above. In late June of this year, I called your office, and as an officer in this corporation, I explained the following reasons for late payment of the annual corporate fee. The passing of my mother, followed by the illness of my father, and subsequently, my husband undergoing two surgeries had required our leaving the state and residing for a short period of time in New York. Consequently, much "catching up" on mail was necessary upon my return to Florida.

Your office was most understanding and asked that I mail a check with the original required amount. I did so. That checks was received and deposited by your office (Enclosed copy attached). As a follow up, I noted our corporation listed on the computer and therefore considered this subject closed.

However, I now see that the corporation was "Dissolved".

I would greatly appreciate your view of this matter and thank you in advance for your consideration of reinstatement minus the $600 penalty.

Yours very truly,

Phyllis Shine 561-737-2100
