Dear Secretary Mortham:

I have received a request for a $35.00 fee to file dissolution articles for my now defunct company. Satisfying this request would present a burden to my personal finances. My wife and I are both seeking employment to replace the income our new business would have generated. The reason our business was unable to continue in the first place was lack of funds and consequently a charge for dissolution seems unreasonable to me. I am writing you to ask for a waiver of the fee.

I appreciate your consideration and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Harvey Gochberg
