To Whom It May Concern:

While researching a different matter on your web site I found out that my corporation is listed as "Admin. Dissolution for Annual Report". I need to get this situation rectified immediately because my corporation is still in operation. This letter is to inform you that I never received any documents from your office for the 1999 annual report for my corporation, Gator Express Signs, Inc. I am requesting that the penalties be waived because I never received these documents.

Thank you very much for your assistance in this matter. I will see that this does not happen again in the future.

Sincerely,

Bill Schimmel, II
President
Gator Express Signs, Inc.
