To whom it may concern,

I just received this late notice and Annual Report, from my attorney. Last December, I called the 850 #, and requested my address be changed. I also was told that my year end tax form had an area to accomplish the same. Somehow my mailing address was never changed and my attorney never received a first notice. Please accept this updated Annual Report with new address and the $ 150.00 filing fee. In the future , I will make sure that I will contact you all if I have not received the annual report, by the due date. Your understanding in this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Clay B. Cross
