RE: Late Filing

Dear Sirs,

Please excuse the late filing of my Corporation. I have been moving between offices and your file was misplaced. You can only imagine the agony I have been thinking of in the past few days after I located the paperwork. I just started this corporation in July of 1998 and I am just coming to grips with all the paperwork and timely filings that must be done.

I have two children that I stay very much involved with in their school and sports. And I single parent to both of them. My finances are very tight and it would be a strong financial blow to me to have to pay a $400.00 penalty. Please, Please, Please, excuse this late filing as a one time only consideration. And I assure you that I will file immediately and way before May first in the future and all other years after.

Sincerely and with my utmost hope and apology,

---
