Dear Division

Over the past ten years I have been the resident agent for several corporations in the State of Florida, hence am very aware of the annual report filing that is required by the Division of Corporations. I have two real estate corporations in Florida at the current time. Sanibel Realty Connection was received and the fee paid on 4/18/99. Community Real Estate Connection did not receive any prior notice for filing until the current packet marked "2nd Notice".

Since this corporation was just filed on July 1, 1998 I did not feel it was unusual to not have received the packet at the same time I received the one for Sanibel Realty Connection, and believed that it would perhaps come at a later date. I have never received the "first notice" for the filing of this report.

I am enclosing our check for $150.00 for the annual filing fee and requesting that a waiver of any late fees be granted due to the lack of receipt of any previous notice. I appreciate any consideration that can be granted in this matter and trust that these kind of situations will not occur in the future.

Very truly

Jack M. Sheer, Realtor
