To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter to inform you that we never received the 1st notice to file the report. We did not receive this report to file until just over a month ago. The reason we are paying it now as opposed to a month ago is that I only glanced over it and saw that it wasn't due until September 15. It was not until I read through it and realized that it was a second notice with late penalties. Our not receiving the 1st notice may be due to the fact that we moved in January of this year. I have indicated our new address on the form. I am sending this check for the original amount per instructions of the woman whom I spoke with when I called the number on the form.

Thank you,

Mike Young
Vice President
