Dear Sir or Madam:

Our company sent to you this documentation with payment earlier this year on approximately April 2001 and we received no indication that you had not received it until now. Our bank has told us that our check for $150.00 has not been cashed so we are under the impression that you did not ever receive our Uniform Business Report from us. We received a DUE BY SEPTEMBER 12, 2001 notice in the mail on 9/25/01 and we proceeded to call your office and spoke with (Christy) and she instructed us to resend it to you with this explanation letter of why our report apparently had not been filled. All we can tell you is that we did send it and thought that you had received it the only correspondence that our company has received from you was this recent request for it again, so if you would please reinstate our corporation due to this unfortunate problem with lost mail. Our sincerest apologies for the inconvenience for you but we have already sent this earlier this year one time and felt that we had complied with your request. If we would have had any idea that you had not already received this before we would have never allowed this to go this far. Please take in consideration that as soon as our company received this last notice from you we called and took appropriate action for this in a timely fashion. Please also note that the mail did not even deliver this notice to us on time for the 9/12/01 due date on this notice we do not understand what the problem was but we acted as quickly as possible for the received time of the notice that we received. Again our apologies for any inconvenience but it was not our doing we did try to comply. We can't control the mail.

We appreciate your patience and understanding and hope this report finds you quickly.

Sincerely,

Preston C. Jernigan
President
