To Whom It May Concern:

My Company did not receive your Uniform Business Report until today. We were unable to file before May 1, 2003 because of the Report Forms untimely arrival. According to the Post Office here, it must have been lost in the mail. I regret this happening, but was unable to do anything about it. I am sending you the report now complete. If we would have, received it on time, we would have sent it out to you on time. I am sorry for the inconvenience, but it was not in my control.

Here is the report and our check for $150.00 for what we are due for our filing fee.

Sincerely,

Preston C. Jernigan
President
