Re: Late Filing of Annual Report
Janaton, Inc. Ref # P98000059634

Dear Sir:

Recently, the above referenced client received a notice that the corporation annual report had not been filed. They obviously overlooked this form in the day to day operation of their business. It is sometimes difficult for a small business owner to keep on top of all the paper work while continuing to fulfill contracts and duties to the public. Obviously, it was not their intent to miss filing these reports by the May 1, 2000 and 2001 deadlines. This was the first time that it happened and I assure you that they will do their best to be on time in the future.

Please find enclosed a check in the amount of $150.00 to cover the normal fee for this year, we hope that you will be understanding and abate the penalties under the circumstances.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Stephen J. Scarfo
