To Whom It May Concern:

As per speaking to your office in regards to my annual report. Enclosed please find 2 copies of my annual report. As I never received a copy for this year and one for last year. Your records show an old address of our company. I had never received a copy last year and when calling this year to see where this years was, since I knew I did not get a copy, they informed me that the state dissolved my corporation. As told by your office, I am sending in $300.00 for both years annual reports and am asking for you to reinstate my corporation in good standing. I ask that there is no additional late fees due to the fact I had never received my reports. Thanks for your cooperation. Please let me know the status of this request.

Sincerely,

Eric Nathanson
President
