ARTICLE XIII. DIRECTORS - INDEMNIFICATION

A. The corporation shall indemnify any person who is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, or administrative or any investigation relating to the same, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith or in a manner he reasonably believed lawful. However, with respect to any action by or in the right of the corporation to produce a judgment in its favor, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, on application, that despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity in view of the circumstances of the case. Any indemnification hereunder shall be made only on a determination by a majority of the disinterested directors, subjects to the approval of a majority of the stockholders, that indemnification is proper in the particular circumstances because the party to be indemnified has met the applicable standard of conduct.

B. Determination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a pleas of nolo contendere or it equivalent, whether or not adjudication is withheld, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that a party did not meet the applicable standards of conduct and on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount, unless it is ultimately determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section.

C. The corporation shall also indemnify any director, officer, employee, or agent who has been successful on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against all expenses including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of an independent determination that such director, officer, employee, or agent, met any appropriate standard of conduct.

D. The indemnification provided for herein shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person.

E. In addition to the indemnification provided for herein, the corporation shall have the power to make any other or further indemnification, except an indemnification against gross negligence or willful misconduct, under any resolution of agreement duly adopted by a majority of disinterested directors, or duly authorized by a majority of stockholders.

F. If any expenses or other amount are paid by way of indemnification, otherwise than by court order or action by the stockholders, the corporation shall, not later than the time of delivery to the stockholders of written notice of the next annual meeting, unless such meeting is held within fifteen month from the date of such payment and in any event, within fifteen months from the date of such payment, deliver by mail to each stockholder of record at the time entitled to vote for the election of directors, a statement specifying the persons paid, the amounts paid, and the nature and status, at the time of such payment, of the litigation or threatened litigation.

ARTICLE XIV. DIRECTORS - INSURANCE AGAINST PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY. The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was serving as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against the liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have authority to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of law or these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE XV. DISSOLUTION. The corporation may be dissolved at any time by: (1) unanimous written consent of the shareholders; or, (2) the affirmative vote of the shareholders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. On dissolution, the corporation's property and assets shall, after payment of all just debts of the corporation, be distributed to the shareholders pro rata, each shareholder to participate in the distribution in direct proportion to the number of shares held by him.
