To whom it may Concern:

I am writing to request fee adjustment to reinstate my Corporation. The Corporation (Pig-n-Out Inc) was formed in May of 1998 by my CPA. She, gave the wrong address for me to receive renewal paperwork, never told me about it... when it was going to come or even what address she gave..... I was left in the dark until the electric company told me the corp. had been dissolved !!! Of course now I KICK myself for being so stupid as to not researching or following up.... but gosh we TRUSTED her now I am in a predicament because its 900 dollars to reinstate.... I am begging for your review in this matter.... here I was trying to get a surity bond because they want such a huge deposit and now thanks to my own stupidity and trust I have to try to come up with 900 more..... it really puts me in a bind. We are a very small family business run by sisters one runs one drive thru and the other another. We understand the State rules and obligations because we are retired R.N.'s for the State so we know you guys have your job too... but....well ...it may be too late but we did change CPA's.

If there is any way at all that you can help me I would gratefully, gratefully appreciate it.... I am merely asking that I can renew with the standard yearly fee..... thank you for your consideration in this matter.....

I was told that if I wrote a letter you would take me into consideration.....

per conversation on 2/21/2000 I am submitting this correspondence, ch. amt for "300" and corrected report for yr 99-2000 for your consideration. I understand this fee waiver would be a one time waiver. I am also sending copy of report to postal service re tampered mail that I may not have received re notice to file. Any consideration would be most appreciated Sincerely Christine Klummond
