Dear Sir:

My accountant has alerted me that I never filed my annual corporate report for last year. After reviewing my check stubs he noticed that I never paid the fee to the Department of Corporations.

I don't understand how this could have happened, the year before I changed the ~~Registered-agent to myself at my corporate address to avoid any problems. It~~ was always my intention to keep the corporation active.

Please accept my payment for both 2002 and 2003 (enclosed),

Thank You

David A. Gruenewald
