To Whom It May Concern:

In this weekends mail we received from your office a 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Report Packet, 2nd Notice. I assumed there was a 1st notice,one of which we did not receive. We are a new Corporation and have not made a profit as of this writing. It is still only my wife and I trying to make a go of it,a $ 400.00 penalty would be devastating to us and our company. I spoke to Ed in your office this Tuesday morning, he suggested I write you about this situation. We realize being a new corporation is no excuse, however we really never did receive a 1st notice. Please accept our apologies, and would you please consider waiving the $400.00 penalty and find a check for the Annual Report and Corporation Supplemental Fees.

Thank you for your consideration,.
