Dear Sirs:

We write this letter to explain to you that the original uniform business report was mailed to you on April 28, 2000 along with the check in the amount of $150. On receipt of your second notice, we checked our records only to realize that the check had not been presented to our bank. In the circumstances, we are requesting that you waive the penalty of $400. We exercised due care by using the US Postal Service. Enclosed is a replacement check, and the signed UBR.

Sincerely,

David Chin
Director
