ARTICLE VI
PURPOSES

The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are as follows:

- The corporation shall engage in the chartering and leasing of seagoing vessels of every type, power or sail; and may also engage in any type of water oriented activity, including, but not limited to, diving, fishing, and related activities. The corporation may also engage in any and all lawful activities, or businesses, permitted under the laws of the United States, State of Florida, or any other state or country.
- The corporation may lease, buy, sell, use, mortgage, improve, and otherwise deal in, and dispose of all such property, real and personal, as may be necessary or convenient in connection with the business of the Corporation.
- The corporation may enter into, make and perform contracts of any kind, with any person, firm, or corporation, municipality, state, country, or dependency thereof.
- The corporation may acquire, and make payment therefor in cash or in the stock or bonds of the corporation, or by undertaking or assuming the obligations and liabilities of the transferor, or in any other way, the good will, rights and property, the whole or any part of the assets, tangible or intangible, and to undertake or assume the liabilities of any person, firm, corporation, or association, to hold or in any manner dispose of the whole or any part of the property so purchased; to conduct in any lawful manner the whole or any part of the property so purchased; to conduct in any lawful manner the whole or any part of the business so acquired and to exercise all of the powers necessary or convenient for the conduct and management thereof.
- IN GENERAL, the corporation may do any and all of the things herein set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do and in any part of the world, as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, either alone or in company with others, and to carry on any other business in connection therewith, and to do all things not forbidden and with all the powers conferred upon corporations by the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE VII
VOTING RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS

- Each share of common stock shall be entitled to one vote on all matters that may properly come before the corporation. At each meeting for the election of Directors, each stockholder shall have as many votes as the number of shares of common stock owned by him, multiplied by the number of Directors to be elected at such meeting. These votes may be divided among the number of Directors to be elected by the stockholders in such proportion as the holder may desire.

ARTICLE VIII
DIVIDENDS

- Each share of common stock shall share equally in any dividend, and any whole or partial liquidation of the corporation, voluntary or otherwise. Such dividends may be paid out of any fund legally available for such purpose.

ARTICLE IX
STOCK RESTRICTIONS

- No stockholder shall sell, offer for sale, or attempt to transfer any of his stock, or mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber any of his stock, nor shall the corporation be required to transfer any stock on the books of the corporation, except to their stockholders, (unless all the stockholders shall have first consented to such transfer), unless said stockholder shall have first offered his stock, in writing, to the corporation. The Corporation shall have a period of 120 days after such offer within which to elect to acquire the stock at a price equal to the book value of the stock on the date it is offered for sale.

ARTICLE X
STOCKHOLDERS PRIVATE PROPERTY

- The private property of the stockholders shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatsoever, except as otherwise provided by statute.

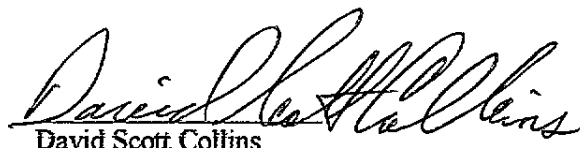

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS

- The Corporation reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal any provision contained herein, and all right and powers herein conferred on the directors and stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE XII
SECTION 1244 INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

- The capital stock of the corporation shall be issued in accordance with a written plan whereby such stock shall qualify as "Section 1244 Stock" under Section 1244. Of the United States Internal Revenue Code, and the corporation shall qualify as a "Small Business Corporation" under said Section 1244.

These Articles of Incorporation are hereby executed this 25 day of July, 1998.

David Scott Collins
