To Whom It May Concern:

I whole-heartedly apologize for the most regrettable lateness of the filing of the corporate uniform business report. I honestly don't know where the last months have gone. I am enclosing the regular filing fees for this report and hoping you will be able to waive the penalties or at least decrease them and allow me the opportunity to make payments. My finances are not very stable at this time. My mind has been a million different places.

My mother's health is not improving (she's in a home for the mentally challenged in CA). My father had a five-way bi-pass. Both of the people I've known longest in my life besides my parents have had serious hospitalizing health problems this year. This just after my brother's passing. Now my youngest son's pediatrician says he has a hearing problem, which could be the cause of his speech impediment.

I don't mean to burden you with my problems, with God's help we'll all carry on. Although any thing you could do to help me with these penalties would be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

Steven Sievers
