To Whom It May Concern,

Enclosed you will find a check for $150.00 . I did not receive the first notice to file my annual report. Please excuse my ignorance, this is the first time I have owned a business. When I received this "second notice" I immediately called the phone number given to inquire about it. I was under the impression I needed to file if my business made a profit. Please accept my $150.00, I am sure if I received the notice the first time I would have called that same number and been given the proper information and would not have been late with the payment. I greatly appreciate any help you can give me in this matter.

Thank You,

Janet M. Kirner
