To the Department of State;

I talked to one of the agents for the Department of State and he suggested we explain why our check for $150 is late. As you can see from your records we paid the fee in February 1999 for the 1999 report. The company pays its bills on time so when we received the 2nd notice for the 2000 Uniform Business Report we were shocked. The mailing address is correct so we tried to figure out what could have happened. After talking with the post office they would only say that there are several mailpersons who deliver to our house. We usually receive all our mail and know that a important document as the Uniform Business Report would not go unnoticed. We believe the document was lost and that's why we did not receive it. The company asks you to see our side of this situation and accept our check for $150 as timely and properly filed. Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Mark A. Goodis
