RE: Uniform Business Report

Dear Division of Corporations,

Upon returning from an emergency trip to Maryland to see my husband's aging parents, we found the UBR on my husband's desk. Apparently, it had arrived in the mail while we were gone.

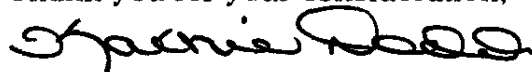

This morning, I talked with one of your representative named Ladell and explained our total situation. Ladell suggested that I complete the form and send the $150.00 registration fee along with a letter explaining our circumstances.

As you are probably aware, the City of Destin has a severe postal problem. To contribute to our dilemma, the address label on the front of the UBR was incorrect. It was addressed to Suite "B" instead of "D". In some places on the form, the address was correct; however, there was even a typographical error in box 10, which I noted on the form.

To make a long story shorter, we are submitting our report with the $150.00 registration fee and would like to request a dispensation from the late fee due to extenuating circumstances.

If you will, please correct the address errors so that we may eliminate that part of the problem. (I doubt if anyone can eliminate the postal delivery problem, but at least part of the dilemma will be fixed.)

Thank you for your consideration,

Kathie Dodd, Vice President
Double D Glass and Mirror, Inc.
