DIVISION OF CORPORATION

Dear Sir or Madam:

I have received the attached 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Report. The report says that it is the second notice sent to me. I have never received any notice before. This is the first time I have received this report.

I have called your office and talked to Melissa today. I explained my situation to here and She advised to send back the report, a check for $150.00 and this letter explaining the circumstances.

This is my first time a part of a corporation. I did not know what are the procedures to pay the fees. I was planning to send the fees as soon as I receive any notice. I was expecting such a notice around the month of August, the month that I incorporated the company in.

I hope that you can accept the attached check and waive the late fees for the reasons mentioned above. I assure that we had no intention to send any late payment.

Your help and understanding are highly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mohammed Tubaishat,
President
