Dear Department of State,

I am following the instructions I was given over the phone in reference to Corporation Uniform Business Report / Corporation Revocation. I was told to explain reasons behind the failure to file in a timely fashion and that possible consideration would be given under the circumstances.

The corporation has a post office box in a private mail center, which is a store front in Pompano Beach. The original address was 2608-3 when the corporation was formed, since than the mail center has expanded and the address has changed to 2608-1. Our mail was inadvertently held aside through the renovation and then put into the wrong mailbox, where it sat for months without my knowledge. I did not think anything was wrong because I was receiving mail in my new box, not realizing that there was mail left in the old box.

I was told that under certain circumstances that the penalties are waived. I was instructed to write and inform you as to what happened for possible consideration.

I thank you for all your help and hope you side in my favor. As you can see I filed in a timely fashion last year and would have done so this year, had the mail been received.

Sincerely

John L. Morse
