Dear Sir or Madam:

Our client, James L. Simms, has received the second request for the Uniform Business Report forms for three different corporations, without having received the first request for any of the three corporations. We feel it may have been possible to misplace one report, but not three out of three.

Therefore, in accordance with instructions from your office, we are filing the three corporate reports with the $150 filing fee for each corporation. We would appreciate your help in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas R. Johnson, CPA
