ARTICLE XI

BYLAWS: The initial Bylaws of this corporation shall be adopted by the initial Directors. The Bylaws may be amended from time to time by either the Shareholders or the directors, as such shall exist from time to time. The shareholders may amend, alter, or repeal any Bylaw adopted by the directors. The directors may not alter, amend or repeal any Bylaw adopted by the shareholders, nor may the director adopt Bylaws which would be in conflict with the Bylaws adopted by the shareholders.

ARTICLE XII

NOTICE OF MEETING: Any subscriber or shareholder present at any meeting, either in person, or by proxy, and any directors present in person at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall conclusively be deemed to have received proper notice of such meeting unless he shall make objection at such meeting to any defect or insufficiency of notice.

ARTICLE XIII

CONTRACTING WITH THE CORPORATION: A director or officer of the corporation shall not be disqualified by his or her office from dealing or contracting with the corporation either as a vendor, purchaser, or otherwise, nor shall any transaction or contract of the corporation be void or voidable by reason of the fact that any director or officer or any firm of which any director or officer is a member or any corporation of which any director or officer is a shareholder, officer or director, is in any way interested in such transaction or contract. Nor shall any director or officer be liable to account to the corporation for any profits realized by or from or through any such transaction or contract, by reason of the fact that he or she, or any firm of which he or she is a member or any corporation of which he or she is a shareholder, officer or director, was interested in such transaction or contract. Nothing contained herein shall create liability for the events described above.

ARTICLE XIV

AMENDMENT: These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the shareholders and approved at a shareholders' meeting by no less than eighty-five (85%) of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all of the directors and all of the shareholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment to the Articles of Incorporation be made.

ARTICLE XV

INDEMNIFICATION: In the event that an officer or director is sued by any party, other than the corporation with regard to alleged actions or omissions by said officer or director taken in the course of their duty to the corporation and their activity on behalf of the corporation in such official capacity, the corporation shall, to the extent allowable at law, fully indemnify such officer or director with regard to any damages, judgments or claims, together with any and all court costs and reasonable attorneys fees incurred, at trial or at the appellate level. The foregoing indemnification, however, shall be applicable only where such alleged wrongdoings relate to the advancing of the best interests of the corporation, and do not evidence any wanton or willful intent, gross negligence or gross recklessness, as determined by the Board of Directors. Upon approval by the Board, the corporation, to the extent allowable by law, may defray the costs of defending any litigation filed against such officer or director in accordance with, and subject to the limitations set forth immediately above. The Board of Directors shall make such determination in their sole discretion and may elect to defray such costs without any requirement that a judgment be obtained by a plaintiff as a prerequisite to defraying such expense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, acknowledged and filed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation, under the laws of the State of Florida, this 12 day of August, 1998.
