Dear Division of Corporations,

Last week I called your office to verify when the annual filing fee was due. The lady I talked due indicated that it was past due and should have been submitted months ago.

I explained that I had always gotten notification of the due date in the past but had received nothing this year. After discussing the matter further we agreed that the billing and any follow-up went to the mailing address which is no longer correct.

She recommended that I explain the delay and that any fine/penalty would be waived.

You will notice that in the new UBR I have updated my address. Please find enclosed my $150. fee.

Sincerely,

Bruce N. Watt
